Published by the Senior Class of Burlington High School

Foreword

The annual Doe-Wah-Jack Roundup—presenting living personalities in actual school life.

If in years to come this book arouses fond memories of joyous school days, then we, the staff of 1939, are satisfied in that we shall have accomplished our aim.

In Memoriam

Hurley Wiggins

Iva Rozzelle

Richard Andrews

"Absent from sin, from sorrow, from care;
Absent from sickness, distress and despair;
At home with my Lord, ah, what will it mean,
Mind cannot fathom, eye hath not seen,
Eor hath not heard the music divine;
Heart hath not felt what joy shall be mine,
This moment here on earth, the next with Christ in Heaven."

Goodbye Dear School

(To tune of "Auld Lang Syne")

May B. H. S. not be forgot, but
Ever brought to mind;
May all her seniors not forget
Those days that were sublime.

Let happiness and progress too
Reach out and serve us all;
Our hopes are bright, our spirits high
We will not let them fall.

Although we know we'll soon be gone
We'll try and not forget;
Those happy hours, those dear sweet friends
These memories we'll prolong.

So now to you we'll say adieu
And though the way be hard;
We'll strive, we'll work, we'll win we know
Because of help from you.

Chorus

For all those seniors that we love
To all those dear kind friends;
A toast we'll drink to memories sweet,
School happiness now ends.

BILLY YOUNGER.

The Seniors of Burlington High

Our glorious goal attained at last
We pause a moment to view the past
Four winters we have stood together
Friendships formed to last forever
And at the parting we give a sigh
For we are the Seniors of Burlington High.

Thirty-five found us Freshmen green
Smearing upperclassmen on the scene
Thirty-six looks in upon slightly swelled heads
Of Sophomores grown sensible as onward we tread
Thirty-seven sees us Juniors, bidding childish things goodbye

Now we are the Seniors of dear old Burlington High.

And so we linger, 'mid falling tears
As memories echo down through the years
We've come to the parting of our road
And each must take up his separate load
Thus venturing on as time draws nigh
For we are the Seniors of Burlington High.

SARA FOSTER COBLE.

Class History

In the fall of 1935 about 212 pupils came to a strange harbor called Burlington High School, eager to board the ship of Learning which was about to embark on a journey on the sea of Ignorance. Our voyage was to be interrupted by shore leave three times.

On the first leg of our voyage, as Captain we had Victor Bryan; First Mate, James Ross; Second Mate, Mary Frances Bee; and Third Mate, Hamilton Wiggins; aided by staff officers, Supt. H. M. Roland and Principal E. C. Leonard. These officers were to guide us through many a raging storm. Members of our crew were honored by appointment to various organizations and clubs. Outstanding were Jimmie Walker and Sarah Holt Therrell appointed to the Annual Staff and Delores Cheatham and Edward Robertson to the Barker Staff.

About Hallowe'en our crew was granted a special leave of absence to attend a Hallowe'en Class Party, with Mary Frances Bee as hostess. Everyone enjoyed this outing. Thus, we acted during our Freshman year. Then we left for our shore leave for vacation.

In the fall of 1936 we returned from shore leave with our crew increased to the tremendous number of 376. On this leg of the voyage, still on the sea of Knowledge, the Captain was John Touloupas; First Mate, Mary Frances Bee; Second Mate, Bessie Blackwell; and Third Mate, Nellie Braxton. Members of our crew were fast becoming ambitious and famous, with Taylor Moser, Ed. Robertson, and Victor Bryan being promoted to the Barker Staff and Helen Ingold and Ruth Brown to the Annual Staff. Under the able leadership of Mr. P. L. Irwin, the Junior Hi-Y was organized with Victor Bryan, James D. Phillips, Kenneth Underwood, Leonard Miller, Hamilton Wiggins, Hughston Wooten, and John Touloupas as charter members. 'Twas during this year that the Sophomores gave noble assistance to B. H. S.—the first Annual Social Standards Conference. Thomasine Teer, Matoaka Waugh and John Touloupas were honored by being appointed to the Junior Honor Society. Many of our boys won the coveted monogram on the athletic field, for their prowess in the many athletics of B. H. S. Our crew, being ambitious, played a great part in our school's activities; however, as ambitious as they were, they were quite ready for shore-leave.

In the fall of 1937 we again returned from shore leave with our crew of about 180. In this part of our voyage Victor Bryan as Captain, Edward Robertson as First Mate, Bessie Blackwell as Second Mate, and Jennings Bryan as Third Mate led us through many a stormy night, aided by Supt. L. E. Spikes and F. M. Biggerstaff, principal. Amongst our crew we had many outstanding pupils who rose to fame. Jimmie Walker, Jennings Bryan, Dickie Bell, Ruth Brown, Edith McDade, Lonnie Braxton, and Jimmy Dillard were elected to the Honor Society; to the Annual Staff, Eleanor Barnwell, and to the Barker Staff Ed. Robertson, Victor Bryan, Margaret Ross, Ruth Brown, Jeanne Cannon and John Touloupas. Many of our boys were playing on the varsity teams with Taylor Moser and J. B. Williams outstanding. Other pupils were honored by being appointed to the Student Council, Debating Club, Hi-Y, and Band. Then came what we had looked forward to for two whole years—the Junior-Senior Prom. Under the leadership of Mrs. Pleasants, Junior sponsor, our Prom turned out to be the most successful in recent years. Then for our reward for three years of slaving, we received our class rings. Finally our last shore leave before embarking on the last leg of our journey came.

In the fall of 1938 we returned from shore leave with a crew of about 150. We were now beginning the last leg of our journey and the most important. As Captain we had Ed. Robertson; as First Mate, La Verne Fortner; as Second Mate, Nellie Braxton; and Third Mate, Jimmie Dillard with the aid of the staff officers, Supt. L. E. Spikes and Principal F. M. Biggerstaff.

A great number of our crew were brilliant in all the sports—football, basketball and baseball. Many of our crew were honored by being appointed to various organizations: Ruth Brown, Editor-in-Chief of the Annual; Jimmie Walker, Editor-in-Chief of the Barker; and Jennings Bryan, President of Student Body. Then came the Social Standards Conference, which was a success. The Christmas pageant was presented with the aid of the Seniors. Many of our crew were honored by membership in the Honor Society: Eleanor Barnwell, A. D. Cobb, James Phillips, Matoaka Waugh, Marvin Mebane, Thomasine Teer, La Verne Fortner, Ruby Pruitt, Nellie Braxton, and John Touloupas.

And now in the distance looms our goal—Commencement—at which time each member of our crew hopes to obtain his sheepskin, with none going down into the briny deep.

To sum up the journey of four years on the Sea of Ignorance: All our work has not been done by a spurt here and there, but by consistency, patience, and a yearning for more knowledge. Our voyage would have been impracticable had it not been for the untiring efforts and love of all the faculty members of B. H. S. for which the entire crew is very grateful.

JOHN TOULOUPAS, Historian.

Class Prophecy

"So you're twenty-seven tomorrow. Um-m, you're getting old."

"Oh, no, not twenty-seven, only twenty-six. Doesn't time fly? Ten short years ago I was just sixteen. Why ten years ago we graduated from B.H.S.!"

"Why, what's today? May 31? Gee, you're right. Wonder what become of all our classmates? Wonder what Ed and Eleanor and all the rest of the gang are doing?"

"Look here, what's this? Why there's something in this bottle! Here, pull out the stopper. What does it say?"

"Concerning the class of 1939, B.H.S.
The wind is howling round our ship.
Fate has not favored us on our trip.
And now we are doomed to die."

"I, F. M. Biggerstaff, for years have sailed the high seas as a pirate bold—my one purpose being to see the fulfillment of this prophecy which I entrust to the waves. It is my sincere desire that this will fall in the hands of one who will prize it as I have. The waves have helped to show me clearly the fate of each senior."

Belvin Huffman is now a coach at Illinois University.

Frances Hodge is leader of an "old maids' sewing circle" in Chapel Hill. Some of the members are Marie Halacheff, Geneva Graves, Mary Frances Gilmore, and Maxine Dodson.

Helen Allen, Margaret Avent, Margaret Bullock, Margaret Cox, and Bessie Robertson are successfully keeping loved ones at home.

Ruth West and Matoaka Waugh are two of New York's models. (I knew their height would do them some good.)

Paul Blalock is owner of Burlington's finest filling station.

Johnney Mae Wagner is now content and happy as house mother in a Carolina fraternity house.

Kenneth Underwood is now the manager of the new Overwood Hotel. Ansel Coleman is his able assistant.

Sara Lamberth is the Sally Rand of today. Wilhelmina Hall has replaced Benny Goodman in the musical world. In her orchestra are Jimmy Dillard, Ed Robertson, and R. O. Wilkins.

Russell Jobe is a famous "midget" with the Ringland Brothers Circus. Erwin Harris and Billy Haseman—two prominent brewers—are now raising little "mugs."

Forrest Hall, electrical wizard, has perfected a new rocket and at the present time is visiting Mars for a week or two.

Dorothy Hearne and Helen Ingold are fashion designers.

Marie Glenn has just been named winner of the new sensational "Talkathon."

P. J. Davis is head physician at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Ben Coble, better known as "Tornado Ben," has recently been involved in another of his wild night club scandals.

Thomas Allison and Ladd Anthony are sports writers.

Virginia Barger and Jurline Bass are missionaries in Africa.

Mary Frances Bee is head coach for the B.H.S. basketball team, which is on top at last.

Lonnie Braxton is a famous writer. He has just finished his latest book entitled "How to Keep Your Girlish Figure."

Guess who the first lady of the land is? None other than Ruth Brown.

Jennings Bryan and Walter Carter are noted Congressmen.

Willis Smith and Victor Bryan are manufacturers of Beauty Rest Mattresses.

I have at last found out who thinks up these awful cross word puzzles—Dorothy Chriseo and Mary Louise Cooper.

Frank Copeland is in Hollywood doubling for "Mickey Mouse" and Howell Brooks for "Pluto." Evelyn Dickey and Ruby Edmonds and Margaret King—girl hitch hikers—claim they can go from New York to Los Angeles in a day or so. (P. S.—They catch rides with airmail pilots.)

Evelyn Craven is secretary to Donald Gurley—editor of the Daily Times News.

Lucille Estes is a matron at a deaf and dumb school.

La Verne Fortner and Joy Isley are joint owners in the Isley-Fortner pickle factory.

You remember how sleepy Stubby Williams stayed all the time? Well, he is down with sleeping sickness.

Betty Sue Fox is the first woman candidate for the president of the United States.

Virginia Newsome and Howard Hensley are rising young poets. (It's good to see Miss Frazier's poems did somebody some good.)

The Jeffercoat sisters, Elizabeth and Trudie, have just completed their new hospital in California. Good enough, girls.

Jack Hall, Petie Pierce, and Charles Garrison are horseback riders down at Pinehurst.

Virginia Williams and Naomi Wilson and Helen McLendon are among our best dress designers in Paris.

Billy Younger and Steve Riddle are managers of the Burlington Book Shop.

James Wilson and George Lineberry are financiers of Wall Street. (I knew they would be good at something but I never dreamed it would be on the "Street.")

I hear that Daphne Vaughn is the "Annie Oakley" of today. She has just won the National Title in Archery.

Helen Way is the manager of Roses' 5-10-25 cent stores in Haw River.

Bessie Blackwell has just completed a book entitled "How to Conquer Your Enemy."

Campbell Irving is the editor of Esquire.

Among the outstanding Debutantes of New York City are Nancy Holt, Eleanor Barnwell and Agnes Walker. Margaret Ross has been very successful in Metropolitan Opera.

Herbert Wellons is a noted Motion Picture director.

Sara Foster Coble is Professor of French at Elon College.

Jewell Rae Jones is a Red Cross Nurse.

Walter Carter and James Hinshaw have joined the House of David.

Joe Barnwell is campaigning for the governorship of North Carolina.

Albert Cobb and Charles Benson are famous Radio Comedians. (Good thing we can turn a radio off.)

Martha Warren has just become a new sales lady for Tiffany, handling "jewels" of all kinds.

John Touloupas and Nellie Braxton are happily raising some hot dogs—no, I mean little Touloupases.

Henry Brewer and Irene Swinney are short story writers.

Jeanne Cannon has now taken over Burlington Business College.

Due to the death of the Chief, D. B. Bass, Jack Coplin has become his successor as head of the Boy Scouts of America.

Dickie Bell and A. C. Mansfield are professors at Duke University.

Hamilton Wiggins and Alfred Tua are star "G" men.

Well, Sara Holt Therrell didn't marry D. B. after all; she married some Frenchman. (P. S. She couldn't get enough French in High School. Believe me, I did.)

Evelyn Underwood and Evon Wicker have taken a cruise after their yacht was repaired at Haw River.

Helen Rhodes, Julia Ellen Freshwater, Edna Somers, and Edith McDade have just finished their first volume of "How to Win Your Man." (Say, did they ever get married?)

Reba Frazier is the Art Director for the Country Home Magazine.

Frank Copland is a fire eater in the Barnum and Bailey Circus. (He's got a better appetite than I have.)

Katherine May has at last gotten a patent on that piece of music she used to play on Tuesdays and Fridays in chapel.

Harold McLendon is giving lessons on the value of sleep.

Alex Mebane is doubling for Jimmie Walker, a famous star of Hollywood. (I still say they are some kin.)

Cornelia Morton was taken ill in one of her chain of pop corn stands the other day.

Jane Jackson Moize and Elaine Ross have gone abroad to study French.

Walter Perry is in charge of an expedition to Africa. Along with him are Harry Phillips, Dolan Moss, and Leonard Miller. (You don't suppose he is taking them there to use as food for his wild animals.)

Marvin McBane just won out in the National Golf Tournament. Marvin has as his favorite caddie, James Phillips.

Mildred Lowman, Clara Lee Morris, and Rachel Moore are members of B.H.S. faculty.

Vernon Long and James Ross have a goat farm in South America.

Doris Miller and Mary Ross are in a famous chorus out in Hollywood.

Charles Sharpe and his violin are rising in the musical world but he still has E. F. Stainback at his service.

Taylor Moser, an advocate of men's suffrage, says "Men should have equal rights with women."

Vera Oakley and Vivian Parrott are Interior Decorators.

Lankford Rudd is a prominent New York business man.

Forrest Story has become another "Professor Dado."

Ruby Pruitt and Louise Pyles are in charge of Burlington's most prosperous Beauty Salon.

Lucille Riggan one of the most famous orchestras in America.

Lena Mae Snipes is making her home in Glen Raven.

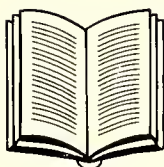

Sadie Rainey and Deanie Smith are both on the Board of Public Education in Burlington.

James Thomas is the rubber man in a Medicine Show. (You remember how fast he used to be.) Warren Simmons is the owner of the show.

I failed to find out what ever became of Ruby Thompson, Ethel Sykes. But last I heard they were on their fourth world cruise.

Some of our classmates left us before their time was out. They were Jack and Marshall Garrison.

You have always heard that in every bunch there is a bad egg. Well, there are two in this class, Thomasine Teer and Marshall Traynham. They are two more on the WPA.

Last Will and Testament

NORTH CAROLINA
Alamance County
Burlington

We, the Senior class of '39 of Burlington High School, in above state and county, knowing it is time to step out into life and leave our school properties and responsibilities to others, being as sound in mind and body as you would expect after trudging through four years of hard work, do hereby make and ordain this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Spikes, our beloved superintendent, we leave the future of B. H. S. knowing it will be in the best of hands.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Biggerstaff, we leave the pleasure of having been our principal and the privilege of stepping on the grass whenever he wishes.

ARTICLE III

To our Faculty, we leave our great knowledge and excellent grades and another Junior Class requesting that they mould them into another Senior band precisely like us.

ARTICLE IV

To the Sophomores, we leave our knowledge and brilliant minds—hoping that some day they, too, will reach the top.

ARTICLE V

To the Freshman, we leave our courage and ability so that they may make the same excellent grades we have made.

ARTICLE VI

To the incoming freshmen, we leave our class motto: "Not for self, but for all" and our class colors—red and white.

ARTICLE VII

Certain individuals do bequeath as follows:

Joe Barnwell leaves his "twinkling toes and fingers" to Marvin Walker—asking him to use some of the enthusiasm in building up the school spirit of B. H. S.

Marshall Traynham leaves her good standing with all teachers to Tyson Murray.

Jennings Bryan, his position as student-body president to David Love, hoping he will be able to keep his audience awake while he is talking.

To Rebecca Deloach goes Ruth West's height to help her achieve her goal in life.

Campbell Irving, his ability to make "girlish hearts" flutter to "Cowboy" Miller.

Thomasine Teer, her petite figure to Dot Kirkman.

Victor Bryan, his ability to make speeches to Alonzo Sorrell.

Mary Frances Bee, her all-around good habits to Willa Horner asking her to keep them in circulation.

John Touloupas, his title of best-dressed boy on the campus and his black, wavy hair to Deoane Moser.

Helen Way, her love for Elon, to Ada Homewood.

Bessie Blackwell, those flirting ways to Doris Waynick.

Dickie Bell, Jimmie Dillard, and Ed. Robertson leave the care of those three certain cute Junior girls to any boy who thinks he is capable of the position.

Helen Ingold, her quiet demure ways to Frances Brannock.

Agnes Walker, her blonde beauty, to Hazelene King.

Herbert Wellons and Dot Chrisco, leave their happy ways to Donna Mansfield and John Porterfield.

Jean Cannon, those cute, dumb expressions to Eva Terrell.

Naney Holt, her car—"The Daisy Mac" to Alice Blue Mangum so she will not have difficulty in getting to Graham.

Lonnie Braxton, his "he-mannish" ways with the "wimmen" to Edmund Koury.

Sara Coble, Edith McDade, Helen Rhodes, Edna Somers and Julia Ellen Freshwater leave their good scholarship to be distributed equally among the Junior Class.

Eleanor Barnwell, that certain laugh and her striking personality to Helen Garrison.

Margaret Ross, her lovely soprano voice to Peggy Lighthourne. Peggy, take a deep breath and hit high "C."

Taylor Moser, his athletic ability to Ed McAtter.

Martha Warren leaves her power to win masculine hearts to Billie Shaw.

Marvin Mebane, his title as cutest to Staley Garrison.

The Jeffcoat sisters, Sarah Therrell, and Ethel Sykes leave their basketball technique to Coach Rackley to better the girls' team of next year.

Wilhelmina Hall, her many styles of hairdressing to Virginia Braxton.

La Verne Fortner leaves her position as Annual Queen to Eunice Johnson.

The remainder of the Seniors, in behalf of dear 'ole B. H. S. leave their positions as "just seniors" to the remaining Juniors.

ARTICLE VIII

In testimony whereof we do appoint Mr. F. M. Biggerstaff as sole executor of this, our last will and testament with instructions that he carry out all its terms without fail.

WITNESSES:

NELLIE BRAXTON, Testator.

MRS. D. D. WATSON.

MRS. WILLIAM R. SELLARS.

MRS. J. A. HINTER.

Resumé

All sports have been successful in Burlington High this year thus far. The students in school and the citizens of Burlington have been more keyed up over high school sports in Burlington this year than ever before. Throughout all of the sports there seemed to be a finer atmosphere of school spirit than there has been in some time.

Football was started with a bang. Business establishments contributed sums of money and a great number of tickets were sold before the season began. The result of the season, as far as the scores are concerned, was not the finest we could hope for nor was it by any means a bad season for the bulldogs.

The boys were out to win in every event and in spite of their defeats, showed up very well during the season.

Soon after football came to a close basketball practice was begun. There was a lack of material on both the boys and girls teams, but these inexperienced players more than likely will give Burlington two fine teams next year due to their training and experience received in '39. The girls were less successful than the boys and outside of the annual tournament lost all but three of their games. The boys, however, won seven of their eleven starts and walked away with the honors in the Second Annual Invitational Tournament, for the second successive year.

Before basketball ended the candidates for the 1939 baseball club met and elected as their captain Warren Simmons. Incidentally they could hardly have picked a better one to lead them. The boys on the baseball squad have had a great deal of experience and several of the boys saw action in '38. The boys started their practice for the new season on February 27 to prepare for a hoped for successful season in the grand old American sport, baseball.

A big hand is offered to the teams and athletes of 1938-39 and three cheers for B.H.S. May the teams of the future even have more success.

An advertisement for Hadley's The Jewelers. On the left is a black and white illustration of a woman's face in profile, looking down at a diamond ring. To the right of the illustration, the text "SHE'LL BE" is in a bold, sans-serif font, followed by "Proud..." in a large, elegant script font. Below this, a small rectangular box contains the text: "of any ring, chosen from our carefully selected stock. We have a design to suit her taste, at a price to fit your purse." The background of the advertisement has a subtle horizontal line pattern.

"Jewelers Since 1870"

St. Peter (at heaven's gate): What is your greatest sin?
Marshall Traynham: My greatest sin is vanity. Every day I look into a mirror and say "How beautiful I am."
St. Peter: Enter into heaven. To be mistaken is not a sin.

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete co-operation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.

Correspondence is Invited
